
PEDIATRIC DENTIST RESUME

Summary:

An individual whose professional expertise is based on helping children to enhance and maintain their oral health; has properly diagnosed, treated and helped prevent mouth and gum diseases, injuries and malformations of the teeth; very friendly, accommodating, kind and reliable, reasons that make him a personal and trusted favorite of the community.

Professional Experience:

Pediatric Dentist (Private Practice) February 2006-Present
ETS Dental, Chicago, IL

Responsibilities:

Provided dental care for infants, children, and adolescents.
Fabricated space maintainers designed for patients.
Managed patients with behavioral problems or handicapping conditions.
Counseled and advised patients and family on growth and development dental problems of patient.
Provided preventive services through use of fluorides and sealants and instructed patient and family members on dental care.

Pediatric Dentist May 2003-January 2006
MRI Network, Westchester, NY

Responsibilities:

- Performed administrative duties in the office to provide utmost dental services for children.
- Collected, recorded, and maintained children's information like dental history, reports, and allergies and test outcomes.
- Analyzed children's teeth progress and performed dental checks and cleanings on a regular basis and noted development, especially those who are wearing braces.
- Performed and interpreted processes and procedures, and discussing exam outcomes or suggested treatments with children and their parents.
- Supervised the condition of children's oral and mouth conditions, altered and reassessed treatments as necessary.

Dentist May 1999-March 2002
Gary Harris, Chicago, IL

Responsibilities:

Provided dental care for infants, children, and adolescents.
Fabricated space maintainers designed for patients.
Managed patients with behavioral problems or handicapping conditions.
Counseled and advised patients and family on growth and development dental problems of patient.
Provided preventive services through use of fluorides and sealants and instructed patient and family members on dental care.

Pediatric Dentist May 2003-January 2006
MRI Network, Westchester, NY

Education:

Doctor of Science in Dentistry in Pediatric Dentistry
Stanford University, CA, 1999

Skills:

- A technically competent dental care professional
- Excellent patient relations skills, especially children
- Knowledgeable in operating and using modern dental equipment
- Excellent communication skills
- Credible, highly reliable and organized

Affiliations:

American Dental Association, Gold Star Member of the Year, 2005

Build your Resume Now