

Jane Doe

CPR/First Aid Instructor

✉ jane.doe@email.com

📍 New York, NY

🌐 linkedin.com/in/janedoe

☎ 123-456-7890

🌐 janedoe.com

📁 janedoe.com/portfolio

Summary

Highly experienced and certified CPR/First Aid Instructor with over 5 years of experience in teaching life-saving skills to individuals and groups. Proven track record of successfully training over 1,000 students with a 95% certification rate. Possesses strong knowledge of emergency medical procedures and excellent communication skills.

Experience

CPR/First Aid Instructor

Jan 2018 - Present

American Red Cross

New York, NY

Teach CPR and First Aid courses to individuals and groups, including adults, children, and infants. Develop and implement engaging lesson plans, conduct skills assessments, and provide feedback to students.

- Taught over 500 students in CPR and First Aid techniques, resulting in a 98% certification rate
- Developed and implemented a new curriculum for the CPR/First Aid course, increasing student satisfaction by 25%
- Conducted skills assessments and provided feedback to students, resulting in a 90% student retention rate
- Collaborated with other instructors to develop and implement a comprehensive training program for emergency medical responders

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)

Jun 2015 - Dec 2017

New York City Fire Department

New York, NY

Responded to emergency medical calls, provided patient care, and transported patients to hospitals. Collaborated with other emergency medical responders to provide effective care and treatment.

- Responded to over 1,000 emergency medical calls, providing care and treatment to patients in need
- Transported over 500 patients to hospitals, ensuring safe and timely transport
- Collaborated with other emergency medical responders to develop and implement a comprehensive emergency medical response plan
- Participated in continuing education and training programs to stay up-to-date on the latest medical techniques and procedures

Strengths

Leadership

Proven ability to lead and manage teams, with excellent communication and organizational skills

Teaching

Skilled in developing and delivering engaging lesson plans, with a strong ability to communicate complex concepts to students

Emergency Medical Response

Extensive experience in responding to emergency medical calls, providing care and treatment to patients in need

Skills

CPR/First Aid Instruction

Emergency Medical Response

Teaching and Training

Leadership and Management

Communication and Interpersonal Skills

Languages

English

Native

Spanish

Fluent

Education

Bachelor of Science

Jan 2010 - Dec 2014

New York University New York, NY

Emergency Medical Services 3.5

Certificates

CPR/First Aid Instructor Certification

Jan 2018

American Red Cross

Certified to teach CPR and First Aid courses to individuals and groups

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) Certification

Jun 2015

New York City Fire Department

Certified as an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) to provide patient care and transportation

Awards

Outstanding CPR/First Aid Instructor Award

Jan 2020

American Red Cross

Awarded for outstanding instruction and dedication to teaching CPR and First Aid courses

Exceptional Emergency Medical Response Award

Jun 2017

New York City Fire Department

Awarded for exceptional response and care provided during emergency medical calls

References

John Doe, Training Manager
Supervisor john.doe@redcross.org

Jane Smith

Emergency Medical Services Director
Colleague jane.smith@fdny.org

Hobbies

Volunteering for emergency medical response events

Participating in continuing education and training programs