

Morgan Vasilevski

(226) 574-8956, vasilevskim@uwindsor.ca

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience with Microsoft Access database management and reporting; working knowledge of Esawin, MATLAB and SPSS
- Strong analytical and scientific reasoning skills acquired through academic distinction
- Practical experience working in a physics laboratory, including using measurement tools, lab equipment, and following safety procedures
- Communication, time management, and organizational skills developed through balancing employment and volunteer experience while maintaining a strong academic average
- Valid G2 Driver's License with a reliable vehicle

EDUCATION

Honors B.S. Physics, Medical Physics Co-op

Sept. 2019 - Present

University of Windsor, Windsor, ON

- Dean's Honor Roll (GPA 3.80)
- Member of Golden Key International Honor Society

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Clinic Administrative Assistant

May 2019 - Present

Windsor Medical Clinic, Windsor, ON

- Introduced a more efficient filing system that reduced the staff file retrieval time by 20%
- Maintain patient databases and create reports using MS Access and Excel
- Provide administrative support to a team of healthcare professionals
- Maintain detailed records, coordinate meetings, process invoices, and liaise with vendors

Laboratory Assistant

Oct. 2019 - Mar. 2020

University of Windsor, Windsor, ON

- Explored the growing development in laser-induced breakdown spectroscopy
- Investigated new techniques for the preparation of bacterial placement surfaces
- Assisted in experimental alignment and data collection
- Analyzed and compared spectral intensities using various software packages

VOLUNTEERING & LEADERSHIP

Vice President

Dec. 2019 - Present

University of Windsor Physics Club, Windsor, ON

- Delivered engaging and interactive presentations to high school physics classes, resulting in positive feedback and invitations for additional sessions. Organized club meetings and events.

Medical Volunteer

Sept. 2017 - Aug. 2018

Windsor Regional Hospital (Ouellette Campus), Windsor, ON

- Transported discharged patients by wheelchair to waiting transportation