

ERASMUS SAVELA

EXECUTIVE CHEF

CONTACT

rasmus.savela@email.com
(123) 456-7890
San Francisco, CA
LinkedIn

EDUCATION

Associate of Science
Culinary Arts
Laney College
2008 - 2010
Oakland, CA

SKILLS

Collaboration
Kitchen Equipment
Maintenance
Budgeting
Team Management
Fine Dining
Food Preparation
Recipe Creation

WORK EXPERIENCE

Executive Chef

The Fire Society

2014 - current / San Francisco, CA

- Collaborated with production manager to budget and plan purchases based on consumption, saving $27K per year
- Developed daily kitchen schedules to improve workload distribution and maintain individual goal achievement, increasing employee retention by 31%
- Organized recipes and staff preparations for company events, resulting in an average of $18K per event
- Scouted and trained young chefs from local high schools to create unique monthly dishes, increasing sales of specialized dishes by $33K annually
- Enforced 100% compliance with state and federal health codes, resulting in 24 "A" health inspection grades

Executive Chef

McCormick & Kuleto's

2012 - 2014 / San Francisco, CA

- Introduced "burrito relleno" on the breakfast menu, raising breakfast sales by an average of $170 per day
- Implemented monthly team training sessions, increasing employee retention by 24%
- Managed budgets based on consumption plans that reduced wasteful purchases by 14% a year
- Managed new outside catering services, becoming the biggest revenue earner for the restaurant in 2013
- Observed and maintained high hygiene standards during all stages of food production

Server

Gary Danko

2010 - 2012 / San Francisco, CA

- Collaborated with 12-person serving staff to seat guests according to preferences, increasing tip revenue by 13%
- Ensured clean kitchen environment, surpassing San Francisco Department of Public Health standards for 2 consecutive years
- Trained 20 new service employees, created a competitive team in 2011, and retained 90% of employees
- Upsold menu specials and drinks to regular customers, increasing profits by $132 in profits per shift