

CLINT R. WILLIAMS

(541) 123-4567 | crwilliams@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/clintrwilliams

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Motivated Audio Engineer with solid recording, editing, and mixing experience. Effective communicator and team player with exceptional organizational, project, and time management abilities. Constantly researching new audio technologies and processes to ensure premium services.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Music
Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR

June 2019
3.62 GPA

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

Midi Systems and Applications; Sound Synthesis; Audio Technologies; Introduction to Digital Audio; Musical Technology; Studio & Multi-Camera Production; Technical & Creative Writing

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Clint Williams Recordings (Self-employed), Corvallis, OR
Freelance Audio Engineer

Sept. 2016 – Present

- Record sounds in-studio and on locations to obtain necessary tracks
- Keep all equipment in good working order to maximize sound quality
- Set up equipment onsite, including microphones and recording devices
- Collaborate with clients to determine project scopes and set milestones
- Utilize specialized software to mix and edit sound tracks
- Deliver final audio files to customers and make adjustments as needed

KBVR 88.7 FM Radio Station, Corvallis, OR Radio Co-Host

Dec. 2017 – Mar. 2019

- Served as weekend disk jockey
- Researched stories for radio segments
- Created radio contests to increase audience engagement
- Conducted live interviews with performers and callers

Arizma Studios, Corvallis, OR
Assistant Engineer

Sept. 2016 – Dec. 2017

- Adjusted sound quality to meet product standards
- Followed up with customers regarding project changes and updates
- Tested, calibrated, and repaired equipment

SKILLS

- Meticulous in sound quality
- Skilled in critical music analysis
- High proficiency with acoustic and electronic equipment
- Able to work effectively in a fast-paced environment
- Excellent knowledge of music production, audio and music technology, and sound engineering